

I don't feel that cell phones should be allowed for safety reasons & for the same reasons they are not allowed in movie theaters & public places. It is very annoying to other passengers who will have no other choice but to listen to these people talking on their phones. I do think texted messages or email & internet options should be allowed.